(i)(1) The terms “date of sale” or “date of acquisition” as used in this section are defined as the date of the event (e.g., sale, confirmation of sale when required under local practice, delivery of deed in case of voluntary conveyance, etc.) which fixes the rights of the parties in the property.

(2) The term “property” or “real property” as used in this section shall include

(i) A leasehold estate which at the time of closing the loan was not less duration than prescribed by § 36.4350(a)(2) of this part, and

(ii) The rights derived by the holder through a foreclosure sale of real estate whether or not such rights constitute an estate in real property under local law.

(j) Except as provided in paragraph (h)(6) of this section, the provisions of this section shall not be in derogation of any rights which the Secretary may have under § 36.4325 of this part. The Under Secretary for Benefits, or the Director, Loan Guaranty Service, may authorize any deviation from the provisions of this section, within the limitations prescribed in 38 U.S.C. Chapter 37, which may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the objectives of this section if such deviation is made necessary by reason of any laws or practice in any State or Territory or the District of Columbia: Provided, that no such deviation shall impair the rights of any holder not consenting to the deviation with respect to loans made or approved prior to the date the holder is notified of such action.

§ 36.4321 Computation of guaranty claims; subsequent accounting.

(a) Subject to the limitation that the total amounts payable shall in no event exceed the amount originally guaranteed, the amount payable on a claim for the guaranty shall be the percentage of the loan originally guaranteed applied to the indebtedness computed as of the earliest of the following dates:

(1) The date of the liquidation sale; or,

(2) The cutoff date established under paragraph (f) of § 36.4319 of this part; or,

(3) The cutoff date established under paragraph (b) of this section.

Deposits or other credits or setoffs legally applicable to the indebtedness on the date of computation shall be applied in reduction of the indebtedness on which the claim is based. Any escrowed or earmarked funds not subject to superior claims of third persons must likewise be so applied.

(b) In any case in which there is a delay in the liquidation sale caused by:

(1) The holder of the loan extending forbearance in excess of 30 days at the request of the Secretary, the cutoff date for computation of the indebtedness shall be 30 days after the date the Secretary determines the liquidation sale would have taken place if there had been no such delay, provided: the net value of the real property securing the loan does not exceed the unguaranteed portion of the indebtedness as of the actual liquidation sale date and such net value will exceed the unguaranteed portion of the indebtedness as of the cutoff date;

(2) The Secretary, including the Secretary's failure to provide the holder with advice as to the net value of the security within two working days prior to a scheduled liquidation sale but excluding forbearance exercised at the request of the Secretary, with respect to a holder which has complied with the provisions of § 36.4319(b) of this part, the cutoff date for computation of the indebtedness shall be the date the liquidation sale would have taken place if there had been no such delay;

(3) A voluntary case commenced under Title 11, United States Code (relating to bankruptcy), the cutoff date for computation of the indebtedness shall be 30 days after the date the Secretary determines the liquidation sale would have taken place if there had been no such delay, provided: the net value of the real property securing the loan does not exceed the unguaranteed portion of the indebtedness as of the actual liquidation sale date and such net value will exceed the unguaranteed portion of the indebtedness as of the cutoff date.

(c) Adjustment of cutoff dates:

(1) Any cutoff date established under § 36.4319(f) of this part or paragraph (b) of this section will be adjusted by a period of months corresponding to the number of installment payments, if any, received by the holder and credited to the indebtedness after the cutoff date is established.

(2) When a cutoff date is established under paragraph (b)(2) of this section, the actual liquidation sale date will be used for purposes of computing the indebtedness in any subsequent accounting between the holder and the Secretary; if an earlier cutoff date is in effect at the time delay in a liquidation sale is caused by the Secretary, such date will not be modified by application of the provisions of paragraph (b)(2) of this section, but will be extended by an interval corresponding to the delay in the liquidation sale caused by the Secretary for purposes of computing the indebtedness in any subsequent accounting between the holder and the Secretary.

(3) Any cutoff date established under § 36.4319 of this part or paragraph (b) of this section will be considered to be the liquidation sale date. Such date will be modified in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section if the provisions of that paragraph are applicable after such date has been established.

(Authority: 38 U.S.C. 501)

(d) Credits accruing from the proceeds of a sale or other disposition of the security subsequent to the date of computation, and prior to the submission of this claim, shall be reported to the Secretary incident to such submission, and the amount payable on the claim shall in no event exceed the remaining balance of the indebtedness.

(Authority: 38 U.S.C. 501)
